Dear Bill:

STAT A constituent from Vermont, [redacted]
STAT recently inquired about employment possibilities at the STAT Select Committee on Intelligence. Unfortunately, on our small staff we have no opening for [redacted]
However, I am so impressed by his extraordinary background in military matters, intelligence and Soviet affairs, including the Russian language, that I wanted to call him to the attention of your agency. It may be that you would STAT have a use for someone of [redacted] extensive experience, and particularly his Russian language ability.

STAT I hope you can give him careful consideration. I would appreciate hearing from you on whether there might be a need for [redacted] at the CIA.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Pat

Patrick Leahy
Vice Chairman

The Honorable
Patrick J. Leahy
232 Russell Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Leahy:

I am writing to apply for employment as a staff member of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.

I desire to return to work in a profession for which I possess the requisite education, experience, and aptitude to build a successful career.

I am completely conversant with the national intelligence process and with the organization and functions of the US Intelligence Community.

I am a superior manager/administrator, an articulate, persuasive communicator, and a person who enjoys the "people-and-politics" dimension of decision-making and policy-making.

For initial references, you may contact Lieutenant General William E. Odom, Director, National Security Agency and Lieutenant General (Retired)

SIAI

In the event of your further interest, I shall be happy to come to Washington, D.C. for a personal interview and a polygraph test.
